Finishing & Assembly

1. Face Sculpting: Use a needle and thread to make an indentation for the mouth, sculpting between R8 and R9 of the head.
2. Embroidery: Embroider the whites of the eyes and a nose.
3. Attach Head: Sew the head securely to the body.

Goggles

With grey yarn, make 2 circles.

- R1: 6 sc in MR [6]
- R2: 6 inc [12]
- On the first circle, fasten off and hide the end. On the second circle, leave a tail for sewing. Sew the two circles together side-by-side.
- Trim: Using white yarn, create a border with a surface slip stitch between R1 and R2 of each circle.
- Strap: Attach grey yarn to the side of one goggle and chain 30 (or enough to fit snugly around the head). Sew the other end of the chain to the other goggle. Hide the ends. You can add a few stitches to secure the goggles to the head.

Parachute (Backpack)

With grey yarn.

- R1: Ch 8. Starting from the 2nd ch: inc, 5 sc, 4 sc in the last ch. Continue on the other side: 5 sc, inc. [18]
- R2-7: 18 sc (6 rows) [18]
- R8: 10 sc (this is a partial row to move the start point to the side).
- Now, we will work in turning rows to create the flap.
- R9-10: Ch 1, turn. 8 sc (2 rows) [8]
- R11: Ch 1, turn. Skip 1 st, 2 sc, ch 3 (button loop), 2 sc, skip 1 st, sl st in the last st.
- Fasten off and hide the ends. Add a small button to the backpack.

Backpack Straps:

- Attach yarn to a bottom corner of the backpack. Chain 20, place a marker in this 20th chain, then chain 40 more. Cut the yarn.
- Attach yarn to the other bottom corner. Chain 20. Join with a sl st to the marked chain on the first strap. Chain 40 more. Cut the yarn.
- You should now have a V-shape at the bottom connecting the two long straps. Thread the long ends through the top corners of the backpack (from back to front) and tie them. This creates the X-shape on the monkey's chest.

 All Done!
